

This is a biased outrage! Not only should Sinclair be forced to cancel this plan, the companies suitability to continue to use the public airways should be reconsidered. Please consider this a formal complaint.